

One Date Case Study: Ryan H.

How Ryan Enjoyed a Collection of
New Lovers and Found His Dream
Girl

Background

Ryan H. is a One Date buyer from a small town in North Carolina, USA. Using the One Date System, he enjoyed adventurous flings with numerous new lovers. Ultimately he met his dream girl – and today they're engaged. Ryan shares his experiences using One Date and The Dating Artisan in this case study.

First Success

Ryan reports his first success in his second month after beginning the course. “I met a girl at a NYC bar and pulled her in the same night,” he says. “I was on Module 3 at the time.”

Because he lived states away in North Carolina, they kept it casual, and a month later they met again to say their farewells.

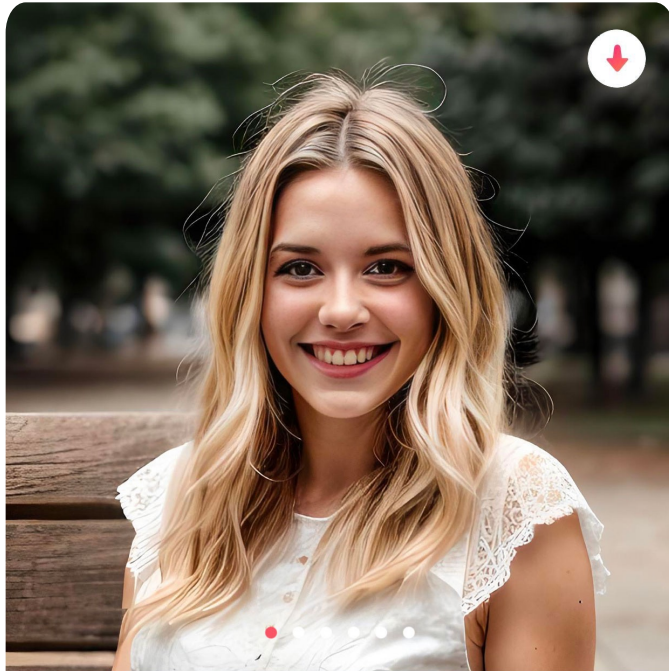

Second Success

Success breeds success, however, and Ryan's first success led straight to his second. Visiting the first girl in New York City to unwind things, Ryan says that

"After a kiss goodbye outside, I immediately clinked glasses with a new girl who sat in her seat at the bar. Got together with her afterwards that night (not kidding!)."

Ryan notes the ages of the two girls were 27 and 33, saying "Your material has helped with both younger and older women."

Looking for a guy who's smart, sensitive, and loves a good laugh. Goofy sense of humor is a plus. Deadpan is also okay.

Leveraging Online

Next he turned to online dating, using apps to set up a series of One Dates. Ryan reports there were “at least 5 quality females” he got together with using this approach:

- A 23-year-old sex ed teacher
- A 25-year-old finishing her master’s in nursing (“got her to meet within 2hr of initial message,” Ryan notes)
- A 27-year-old in medical school (“we talked about how the human brain worked,” he says)
- One was someone he knew in the past but had never gotten together with before. It was “like a time machine!” he says
- One was while visiting friends 3 hours away – a Canadian actress who also came to meet him within 2 hours of the first message

Love in the Air

On one flight, Ryan notes he met one of the air hosts. She gave him a handwritten card and gift bag. He told her, “If this wasn’t a connecting flight, we would go on a date!” He says “she blushed and loved it,” adding him on Facebook later.

A Free Night's Room and Board

At the beach with a friend, Ryan chatted up and moved a group of three beautiful girls ages 21-24. "My friend and I each had a girl," Ryan says.

Successfully including the third girl, the two guys were able to end up back at the girls' place that night. "Saved hotel costs were able to pay for that month's module," he says.

Asian Adventures

By the time Ryan made his second trip to Asia, he'd completed all of One Date and The Dating Artisan modules. In Asia, he "pulled two Swedish girls in the same night, 21 and 22 years old."

Then, on another day, he pulled "one girl from Argentina that was jaw-droppingly beautiful (had her rub sunscreen on my back as an opener after a brief compliment, which worked surprisingly)."

Housesitting Companion

While housesitting for a family on vacation, Ryan “got objectively the most beautiful blonde girl I had ever been with to come over.”

He’d had a failed date with her 8 months earlier – but this time, she texted first. “We spent the evening flirting in the pool, drinking wine, looking at the sky at dusk,” he says, before the two of them, “got together in a field that night while looking at the sky.”

This led later on to “many more times together in my old room where I grew up,” which Ryan says was, “nostalgic to say the least.”

The Girl of His Dreams

“Many more things happened that I’m probably missing,” Ryan says, “But, most importantly, I met my fiancée.” About her he says:

- “Exactly what I looked for in a girl. Looks, personality, education - everything.”
- “I was able to attract her, and so far, have had a fairly drama free relationship.”
- “She acknowledges me as the leader in the relationship.”
- “I know how to manage situations such as jealousy, conflicts, and maintain attraction.”
- “I am now able to focus on other areas of my life, now that I feel I have a much better grasp on this area of my life.”
- “I understand why any conflict is occurring and how to address it, and the few times I don’t, I have a forum of active members (including yourself, Chase) to assist.”

Self-Confidence

Ryan notes that One Date and The Dating Artisan has provided him “with the psychology, motivation, and understanding I needed to do much more than meet women.”

He says, “There are times in life when it is necessary to be bold. Throughout your course I have seen a change in myself, as I walk and talk more confidently.”

Making More Money

He notes that he has “gotten better not only with girls, but in my ability to advocate for myself.”

“The course paid for itself many times over in physical money during a recent performance review with my supervisor,” Ryan says.

Planning for the future, he says that as a result of his experiences with One Date, “I have increased my ability to speak publicly, which will be a necessary skill when I build a business of my own in the upcoming years.”

Ryan's Endorsement

“As seen, I cannot say enough great things about your course. If someone is looking for the most comprehensive, bullshit free, science based material, this is it. Having tried other material in the past, your material is the only material that I fully trust on the dating market.

“I hope more people invest in your product and continue to learn the many things that I have. Going through the material with an open mind, being willing to say ‘yes’ to all social events and traveling to new places applying what you have taught, this has all changed my life for the better.

“Best of luck on your future endeavors Chase Amante and Girls Chase team!”
